

November 2010

Gail Moerman was born in Washington, D.C. in 1943. She lived in Bethesda, Maryland until college and graduated from Teachers College, Columbia University. In 1984, she graduated from The Human Relations Institute before it became Pacifica Graduate Institute.

In 2000, after teaching ESL for thirty years, I asked my Spanish-speaking students to give me a Spanish name. ABI (pronounced AH-BE) has become my true name.

Now I sing, play guitar and piano in the Omega Elderly Program at Adult Ed., SBC. I practice engaged Buddhism with the Thich Nhat Hanh Wabi Sabi Sangha.

I am looking for people who like to swim in the ocean. I am considering a move from my beloved Mesa home to an intentional community.
